

ROYAL PARK LADIES GOLF CLUB supporting participation of members playing golf.

OUR COMMITMENT

Royal Park Ladies Golf Club (RPLGC) will take reasonable steps to facilitate the inclusion and participation of all members, particularly as they age, or experience health issues that may impact on their capacity to play golf.

The Club will strive to provide a welcoming and supportive environment for all members to continue to participate in club activities.

HOW WILL THIS HAPPEN?

Upon receiving a request for assistance, a representative of the Club's committee will meet with the individual member to assist in the development of a personal plan that supports their continued participation in the Club.

THE RPLGC

The Royal Park Ladies Golf Club (RPLGC) provides opportunities for women of all ages and abilities to play competitive golf in a friendly and supportive environment.

The club recognises the value that playing golf has in supporting physical, social, and emotional health for women of all ages and continues to endeavour to support all women to play, including those with emerging additional health and wellbeing needs.

The RPLGC committee encourages feedback from members about further strategies to enhance their personal enjoyment of playing golf, while balancing the resources and capacity of the club and its members to provide additional support if required.

HOW RPLGC CURRENTLY SUPPORTS PARTICIPATION

The RPLGC currently offers a solid base of support for members to continue to participate for as long as possible, by offering:

- A nine-hole competition run weekly, alongside the traditional 18-hole competition.
- Subsidised golf carts reduce the cost to members with mobility issues to keep playing competition golf.
- Social membership, at a minimal cost for members who no longer play regularly, but who wish to remain socially connected to the club.
- Regular special days, often including lunch, which provide an opportunity for playing and non-playing members to socialise in a supportive and interactive environment.

- Award celebrations including trophies named for previous players, in recognition of exceptional golfing ability and/or contribution to RPLGC.
